Symposium
The school student movement in Finland and Sweden: transnational and comparative perspectives

October 28, 10AM–17 AM, Room 1708, Department of Education, Stockholm University

Victor Johansson: In the Interest of Pupils: The Emergence of National School Student Federations in Sweden 1938–1952

Daniel Lövheim: A National School Student Press in Sweden: Perspectives from the late 1950s and early 1960s

Joakim Landahl: The Victory of the Victims: SECO and the Pupil Takeover during the 1966 Teacher Strike

Björn Lundberg: Operation Day’s Work: Education and Global Activism in 1960s Sweden

Ville Soimetsä: Passion and Politics in the Finnish School Student Movement, 1960s to 1980s

Essi Jouhki & Liisa Lalu: "Yes We Can!": Girls and Young Women in the Finnish School Student Movement

Ville Okkonen: Ideals and Threats from Sweden: How the Neighbour was Interpreted by the Finnish School Movement and the Conservatives

Kimmo Rentola: Different Consequences of 1968 in Finland and Sweden

Janne Holmén: Concluding Comments
Schedule The school student movement in Finland and Sweden: transnational and comparative perspectives (room 1708)

10.00-10:10 Welcome and introduction (Joakim & Daniel)

10:10-12:20 Swedish team: presentations and discussions (incl short break)

Victor Johansson: In the Interest of Pupils: The Emergence of National School Student Federations in Sweden 1938–1952 (Chair: JL)

Daniel Lövheim: A National School Student Press in Sweden: Perspectives from the late 1950s and early 1960s (Chair JL)

Joakim Landahl: The Victory of the Victims: SECO and the Pupil Takeover during the 1966 Teacher Strike (Chair: DL)

Björn Lundberg: Operation Day’s Work: Education and Global Activism in 1960s Sweden (Chair DL)

12:20-13:45 Lunch

13:45-16:00 Finnish team: presentations and discussions (incl coffee break ca 14:45).

Ville Soimetsä: Passion and Politics in the Finnish School Student Movement, 1960s to 1980s

Essi Jouhki & Liisa Lalu: "Yes We Can!": Girls and Young Women in the Finnish School Student Movement

Ville Okkonen: Ideals and Threats from Sweden: How the Neighbour was Interpreted by the Finnish School Movement and the Conservatives

Kimmo Rentola: Different Consequences of 1968 in Finland and Sweden

16:15-17:30 (ca) Joint discussions

Introduction by Janne Holmén

17:30 Mingle

19:00 Dinner at Kvarnen